PLANS LAID FOR SALE OF CHAUTAU- QUA TICKETS

Meeting of Chautauqua Committee
Held Monday Evening—Settlement
Club Will Sell Tickets For Year—Privilege Is Let.

Quite an interesting meeting of the Chautauqua Executive Committee was held at the Chamber of Commerce building Monday evening when various committees were chosen and plans were laid for the distribution of the 600 tickets pledged for this year's meeting and for the sale of extra tickets for the annual meeting.

The Executive Committee is as follows: George Frank, Chairman; Judge H. P. Purnell, Vice Chairman; J. B. Wood, Clarence Mathews and Prof. W. J. Caplinger.

An arrangement was made with the Maysville Settlement Club, whose chairman is Miss Zoraida Cochran, to deliver the 600 tickets pledged at last year's Chautauqua for this season and to sell other tickets. These young women will begin this week to deliver the pledge tickets and the ticket sale generally will open next week when it is expected that season tickets will be sold to all who plan to attend the Chautauqua and the attendance this year should be much larger than heretofore.

Heads of committees were selected as follows: Grounds Committee, C. T. Brown; Publicity Committee, Carl Dadds; Junior Chautauqua Committee, Miss Hurd; Finance Committee, S. F. Reed.

Mr. Ross Carrigan, who has so successfully conducted the soft drink booths at the park during Chautauqua week for several years, will be given this privilege this year and Mr. Myron Merz will be the Business Agent of the General Committee in looking after the committee's interest at the gate and at the various park concessions.

PROMINENT MINISTERS BE- GAIN CAREER IN THIS DISTRICT

Two of the Most Prominent Ministers in the Southern Baptist Convention, Now Advanced in Years, Here to Attend Bracken Association.

Two of the most prominent ministers in the Southern Baptist Convention passed through Maysville this morning en route to Germantown to attend the annual session of the Bracken Association of Baptists as a sort of home coming. Both of these ministers began their ministerial career in the bounds of Bracken Association and have not returned in many years.

These men are Dr. J. Pike Powers, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Knoxville, Tenn., and Dr. E. O. Ware, Secretary of the State Board of Missions of the state of Louisiana and editor of the Louisiana State Baptist newspaper.

Besides being pastor of one of the largest Baptist churches in the United States, Dr. J. Pike Powers is an author of much note and a famous lecturer. He began his ministerial career in this district having been ordained at the Augusta Baptist church many years ago. He organized the Mr. Sterling Baptist church and had much to do with the organization of other churches in this district.

Dr. E. O. Ware, is recognized as one of the leaders of the Baptist denomination in the Southland. He too, began his pastoral work in this Association, being ordained at the Two Lick Baptist church where the Association meets this year.

This visit of these two prominent ministers is a surprise in a way. They are both here just to look over the territory where they spent their young manhood and their participation in the annual association meeting will add much to making this year's meeting a wonderful success.

SWOPE'S ELECTION CAUSES SENSATION IN WASHINGTON

Overturn of Former Staunch Democratic District in Kentucky Is Given Important Interpretation.

Washington, August 5.—The election of a Republican to Congress in the Eighth district of Kentucky to succeed the late Harvey Helm has created the biggest political sensation of the year at the national capital. It was a startling political reversal and a leading administration spokesman wondered not only what has happened to the old Democratic ship but also what has happened to the League of Nations.

The overturn of this district, which was considered by Democratic leaders as reliable in its Democracy as any district in the country, is given a most sweeping interpretation here as indicating not only that the country is tired of Democratic rule nationally speaking, but is also opposed to the League of Nations. There is no doubt political experts say, that the election in the Eighth Kentucky district turned on national issues and that the League of Nations was a considerable factor.

This was the first Congressional election since President Wilson returned from France with the League of Nations covenant. The boosters of the league expecting of course, that the Democratic candidate would be elected, had made all preparations to herald his election as the first expression of the American people in favor of the League of Nations, but all their publicity plans along that line were knocked in the head when word came that the Democratic candidate had been defeated.

King Swope, of Danville, the successful Republican candidate, is an opponent of the League of Nations covenant in its present form and now the senators who are fighting the league are getting ready to show that in their first expression, when they had on opportunity to make their views known at the ballot box, the people have said they don't want the league, at least in the form submitted.

Republican leaders at Washington from Chairman Fess, of the Republican congressional committee, all along the line, are more elated over the election of Mr. Swope than by anything that has happened for a long time.

Representative Charles F. Ogden, of Louisville, expressed the view that there is no longer any doubt that Kentucky is through with the present Democratic national administration.

"There is now every assurance that Kentucky is coming into the permanent Republican column," he said. "This election shows the widespread general opposition to the Democratic national administration that exists throughout Kentucky and the feeling that Republican policies are necessary in this critical period in the life of the country. If ever there was an election that was won on national issues this was one. Local questions scarcely figured at all. I might add that there is reflected in this victory the splendid capacity of the Republican State campaign chairman, Chesley H. Searcy."

KEEP THE BOY BUSY

A busy boy is always a cheerful and a very delightful fellow. He never gets into mischief and never worries old folks. The boy who is interested in club work is always a very busy person and one who accomplishes things that are very much worth while.

F. N. Barrett, who will speak at the Farmers Community Meeting at Beechwood Park next week has charge of much of the Club Work and understands how to keep the boy busy. Parents who have boys and boys who have parents should attend the meeting and hear what Mr. Barrett has to say about Club Work in the State.

WATER SITUATION IS NOW VERY ENCOURAGING

The water situation in Maysville is now very encouraging. There is a good supply of water in the reservoirs and the pumping is proceeding very successfully while a good gain is being made. The water now served the public is coming through the mains from the reservoirs and is being treated with lime and iron and chloride. Experts from Louisville are expected here today to begin work at overhauling the large house pumps and the situation is now thought to be well in hand.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

MARTYRS IN COATS

Summer time is woman's time. Her manner of summer dress becomes her well and puts the ungentler sex in the background by contrast, says "Commerce and Finance."

The spectacle of a perspiring man in a hot coat dining opposite a woman in cool lawn or organdie does not redound to the everlasting glory of the male. No man can dominate the eye or give pleasure to the heart with a wilted collar or a damp spot the size of a soup on the back of a Palm Beach coat.

We believe in shirt sleeves. We believe this July is torrid enough to make anyone believe in them. And August is rushing toward us at the rate of twenty-four hours a day.

President Wilson might emphasize his concern for the sufferings of mankind to the Capitol to deliver his speeches in his shirt sleeves. His cabinet and all Washington should follow suit.

We ask the women of the country to countenance the uncoated male and to use their not inconsiderable with men to make them climb out of the furnace.

We ask men everywhere for the sake of the good appearance of the sex to be cool and comfortable this summer.

Finally, we ask the right person, whoever he or she may be, to persuade the delightful dobs and subdubs of our cities to visit the business districts some hot noon and pin a flower on every coatless hero. Then we shall hope.

The world has seen profounder upsets in men's dress than coat peeling, including the removal of lace from their sleeves and fancy patterns from their waist-coats. A well-shirted man without a coat is as attractive as a well-gowned woman without a coat. But the coated man fights the battle of life this summer under a sweltering and unnecessary handicap.

PACKERS TRY TO SHIFT PRICE BLAME

Senator Capper Says Big Packers Are Now Trying to Shift High Cost of Living Blame to Retailers.

Washington, August 4.—A bill designated to check the operations of food profiteers by assessing an excess profits tax upon food commodities is under consideration by Senator Capper of Kansas, as a first step in the reduction of the cost of living, he announced today.

There is a disposition upon the part of the large packers to shift the blame for high living costs to the retailers, a letter received by Senator Capper today from an official of Armour & Co. indicated. The Armour official declared that while the price of beef had been greatly lowered, the difference had been made up by increasing the price of hides. He advised Senator Capper to investigate the activities of retail shoe dealers and handlers of other byproducts.

In war-time the American Red Cross was concerned with military and civilian relief only insofar as it concerned the families of soldiers and sailors. In peace-time the Red Cross is to "mother" civilian communities as well. Nothing so safeguards the welfare of a community as to have a group of people trained to meet emergencies, trained to think clearly and calmly when accidents happen.

Civilian classes in First Aid must be taught by one of the regularly employed teachers who have taken the course, or under the supervision of a registered physician. In schools having a physical director the work is naturally delegated to that department. A Red Cross First Aid certificate is given to all who satisfactorily pass the examination.

To act intelligently when an accident happens, to give proper care to the victim of the accident until the

TO TRAIN ATHLETIC COACHES OF FUTURE

University of Illinois Announces Four Year Course and Degree—New Departure in Education.

Urbana, Ill.—The coming Camps, Staggs, Yosts, and Zupkes—the athletic coaches of the future—will not be developed haphazardly. Instead of being educated for other professions and taking up coaching incidentally, the new coaches will have the benefit of four years' special training for their work and the prestige of a university degree.

That is the plan of the University of Illinois where a department of athletic coaching and physical education has been established. A four year course in coaching will open September 22. Those who complete it will receive the degrees of bachelor of science.

It is expected that many high school graduates interested in athletics will enroll.

The Illinois idea is new. No other university has recognized the importance of such education by offering a four year course and degree.

"Potsy" Clark, famous Illinois athlete, just home from France, who was a member of the championship football and baseball teams of the A. E. F., and Maj. John L. Griffin, executive head of athletic activities in army training camps, formerly director of athletics at Drake University, have been engaged as instructors, in addition to the coaches of the Illinois varsity teams. George A. Huff, for twenty-four years director of athletics and baseball coach at Illinois, is the head of the new department.

The announcement of this course is an important sign of the trend of the times. Once the athletic coach was regarded by the college faculty as more or less of a necessary evil. Now it is realized that athletics and physical education must receive more emphasis in the universities, colleges and secondary schools of the country. That means that there must be trained men to direct this work.

$500 IN CASH PRIZES FOR OVERSEAS EXPERIENCES

Nearly every lad who went overseas has an interesting story to tell—pathetic, amusing, or tender—of some child in France. Perhaps it is little Pierre who crept in to eat with him at mess; or Marceline whom he found, white-faced and terror-stricken, in the cellar of a ruined house; or Henri, whose father was killed in the trenches and whose mother was taken to Germany by the enemy; or it may have been Almee who insisted upon being adopted by the "Americaine". At any rate, there is always a story and a child.

For such stories as these, or simple ones telling of the friendship between the French child and the American soldier, 178 cash prizes are offered. Soldiers, sailors, marines, men and women who were in France during the war in any capacity, or their families, sweethearts or friends, are invited to compete for these prizes. Literary ability is not required. Anybody who can write a letter home can write well enough for the purpose of this contest. Conditions of the contest can be secured by writing "The Fatherless Children of France, Room 634, 410 S. Michigan Ave., Chicago." There is no expense attached to entering the contest which is open to anybody who wants to compete. Mothers, sisters, sweethearts and wives should turn over their letters from Bill or Tom or Jack which they have been so proudly treasuring, and hunt up the references to the little French children. Just some one little incident told simply in a letter may win a prize!

Every woman should know the simple facts of the prevention and cure of disease. It is the ambition of the American Red Cross to educate the women of this country to recognize the first symptoms of illness, to take preventive steps against disease, to guard against its transmission from one member of the family to another, and to nurse cases under the direction of a doctor or a Public Health nurse. In times of disaster or epidemic these women will stand as the community's first line of defense, shoulder to shoulder with the doctors and nurses.

The Lake Division Bureau of Nursing Service of the American Red Cross is prepared to recommend nurses specially trained for Public Health Service, and to confer with chapters in regard to the necessary expense and equipment.

AMERICAN BUFFALOES ARE ON THE INCREASE

Agricultural Bill Passed by Congress
Provides for Disposal of Surplus to Public Institutions.

Provision is made in the current agricultural appropriation act for the Secretary of Agriculture to give buffalo to municipalities and public institutions from any surplus which may exist in the herds now under the control of the Department of Agriculture. In order to aid in the propagation of the species the bill provides that animals may be lent to or exchanged with other owners of American bison. No provision is made to give them to individuals, and only one may be given to each municipality or public institution. This provision is made because of the surplus of bison in some of the Department of Agriculture's buffalo herds, particularly the one in the Wichita National Forest and Game Preserve, in Oklahoma, and because the department is nearing the realization of the first stage in the preservation of the species—the acquisition of at least 1,000 head of buffalo by the Government.

There are approximately 7,000 buffalo in North America. Canada has something over 3,500, and the total number in the United States is more than 3,000. This is about seven times the number in the United States in 1889, when the first buffalo census was taken. Individuals in the United States own approximately 2,000 of the total number in this country. There are eight Government herds, six of which are under the control of the Department of Agriculture. The largest herd in this country is in charge of the Interior Department and is located in the Yellowstone National Park, where there are about 450 bison. The Smithsonian Institution now has a herd of 18 at the National Zoological Park, Washington, D. C.

The first herd of buffalo under the Department of Agriculture was established in 1906 on the Wichita National Forest and Game Preserve. The original herd consisted of 15 animals, the gift of the New York Zoological Society, and this has now increased to more than 100 animals without any outside additions. Two herds have been established in the past year, one in Sullys Hill Park, North Dakota, the other in the Pisgah National Game Preserve, North Carolina. The other herds supervised by the Department of Agriculture are located in the Montana National Bison Range; the Niobrara Reservation, Nebraska; and the Wind Cave Game Preserve, South Dakota. The plan of the department is to establish at least ten herds, widely distributed, in order to prevent the spread of any contagious disease, should it become uncontrollable in any of the herds.

The after-care of the disabled soldier is one of the most interesting forms of Home Service work, and while the main responsibility belongs to the government, the Red Cross Home Service has a very important function in assisting the government in finding the men who need the after-care training and in inducing the relatives to assist the government in carrying forward the training.

That the children of the world shall be "physically fit" is the ideal of the Modern Health Crusade of the Junior Red Cross and Anti-Tuberculosis Association. In one small Ohio town 7,000 toothbrushes are at work on teeth that had never been cared for until it was made one of the "chores" of the crusaders.

HUNDREDS OF JEWS AT STARVATION POINT

Many Refugees on Way to America
Are Facing Starvation in Japan and the Far East.

New York, August 5.—Hundreds of Siberian Jewish refugees, attempting to make their way to America when the war began, have been stranded for months in Japan and other countries of the Far East and are now at the point of starvation, according to reports made public here today by the American Jewish Relief Committee. The Jewish relief system is now organized throughout the Orient.

These are the most pitiful of all the war refugees. They cannot go back to Russia, the land they left, because of the conditions there, the report states. They cannot go to America, the land toward which their faces were turned, since immigration from the Orient is held up at present. Some of them have been waiting almost five years for a boat. Among them are mothers, children, brothers, sisters and sweethearts of people in America and all are penniless and homeless.

A generous appropriation from the funds of the American Jewish Relief Committee and its allied organizations has just been cabled to the Orient to aid these unfortunates. They constitute one of the important charges against Jewish relief funds. Plans are being made to care for them during the remaining months of 1919 out of the $35,000,000 that the Jews of America are seeking this year for relief work in foreign countries. When conditions become more settled, the refugees will be repatriated or brought on to this country.

ON MORAL MOVIES

(Communicated)

A few weeks since there was thrown upon the screen at one of our movie shows the announced "Uplifting", "Educational", "Moralizing", "Purifying", movie of moral rottenness called, "Pit to Win." I think some of the local keepers of consciences of many were called to witness the thing and to give their flat approval before the public was suffered to see it. The thing was so vile and disgusting that would make even that gay Lothario, Lord Byron, blush and apologize. The approval of the local censor board was, of course, forthcoming, and wives and daughters whose minds are presumably pure, rushed to see, hoping with their minds to "touch the pitch without being defiled." Our deeds are no higher than our thoughts. What we see and hear give origin to our thoughts. Seeing unclean things, our thoughts must be unclean.

Thank God, there was to be found in Maysville at least one Pulpit where in the moral courage was not wanting to warn its people to stay away, and in ringing terms to denounce the defiling thing. If there were other Pulpits where such warning was sounded and such wise counsel given, we fail to learn of it.

Now, when the harm's done, I see that that infallible guide of the people's conscience in the State of Ohio—"The Ohio Board of Censors," has withdrawn its former approval of "Fit to Win." The devil laughs, and well he might.

Moral. Why can't our local censors and playhouse managers exercise their own notions of propriety and common decency, approving of only such pictures as will not offend the innocent and the clean of heart? The speaker of such vile things as are depicted in some of our movies would be ostracized from right thinking, polite society. God grant that other pulpits and other men ring with denunciation of such "Educational," morally rotten movies, until the public, with rectified consciences, keep aloof from such theaters.

"Moral uplift," "Education," "Sex hygiene," and all the latter day fol-de-rolls,—what crimes are committed in their name.

If You Have, the Statement of this Maysville Resident Will Interest You.

Does your back ache, night and day?
Hinder work; destroy your rest?
Does it stab you through and through?
When you stoop or lift or bend?
Then your kidneys may be weak.
Often backache is the clue.

Make the burden worse and worse.
Liments and plasters can't
Reach the inward cause at all;
Help the kidneys—use the pills
Maysville folks have tried and proved.

What they say you can believe.
Just to give you further proof,
The kidney action may be wrong.
If attention is not paid
More distress will soon appear.

The duty of the switchboard operator is to answer your number calls and get connections for you.

If she stopped to answer questions, the number of calls would pile up and the service would be delayed; this would be an injustice to the other subscribers.

When in response to a question, the operator says: "I will give you Chief Operator", she is obeying her instruction.

RAILROAD STRIKES MAY CAUSE MUCH HAVOC

Strike of C. & O. Railroad Men in Covington and Silver Grove Yards May Cause Serious Situation Along Main Line.

Mechanists, boiler makers and car repairers at the Covington and Silver Grove yards on the C. & O. went on a strike this morning demanding an increase from 68 cents to 85 cents an hour. This strike may prove quite serious to Maysville and other cities along the main lines of the C. & O. if it becomes necessary to put into effect embargoes on this line as has been necessary on other lines.

It was learned Tuesday afternoon that because of a similar strike on the C. & O. of Indiana that line had found it necessary to place such strict embargoes that no food stuffs were coming into Cincinnati over that line. Because of this general strike condition throughout the north-eastern section of Kentucky, it was figured Tuesday evening there would be approximately 1250 men affected in this section of the state.

PIONEER EDITOR IS TO HAVE HIS MEMORY PERPETUATED

John Bradford Club, of Central Kentucky, to Unveil Tablet in Memory of First Kentucky Editor—Types For First Issue Set in Maysville.

To the many students of local history it will be interesting to learn that at last John Bradford, the editor of the first newspaper West of the Allegheny Mountains, the Kentucky Gazette, is to have his memory perpetuated by means of a fitting tablet to be unveiled soon at Lexington, where the first issue of the Gazette was published.

The John Bradford Club, composed of many Kentuckians interested in state history and especially the history of the publishing business, has started a campaign to raise funds for this memorial tablet. Judge Samuel M. Wilson, of Lexington, will also publish a monograph on Bradford soon. This will be the first of annual historical publications to be made by the club.

Maysville is particularly interested in this John Bradford for he went from Maysville to Lexington spending some time in this city and while here he set the first types for the first issue of his paper. In this respect Collins' History of Kentucky says: "The first newspaper published west of the Allegheny mountains (excepting the Pittsburgh Gazette, which preceded it only a few weeks) was the Kentucky Gazette at Lexington—its first number having been issued on the 11th day of August, 1787. The matter intended for that number was set in type on board of a flat boat while descending the Ohio river to Limestone (Maysville) or else at Limestone while waiting for pack-horses to transport it over the great buffalo, 'Middle Trace', which led over the 'Sugar-loaf' hill just back of that point and via the Lower Blue Licks spring, to Lexington. An apology of the editor, John Bradford in that first number—was ever a newspaper's first unheralded by an apology of explanation?—perpetuates the interesting information that, in that terrible carriage on pack-horses from Limestone to Lexington, 'a great part of the types fell into pl.'"

Mr. and Mrs. William Tolle, of the East end, are the proud parents of a fine new son who was born Monday evening. Mother and babe are doing fine and its reported that Officer Tolle will take his ten days' vacation voted by city council Monday night, immediately.

TERRIBLY SWOLLEN

Suffering Described As Torture Relieved by Black-Draught.

Rossville, Ga.—Mrs. Kate Lee Able, of this place, writes: "My husband is an engineer, and once while lifting, he injured himself with a piece of heavy machinery, across the abdomen. He was so sore he could not bear to press on himself at all, on chest or abdomen. He weighed 165 lbs., and fell off until he weighed 110 lbs., in two weeks. He became constipated and it looked like he would die. We had three different doctors, yet with all their medicine, his bowels failed to act. He would turn up a ten-cent bottle of castor oil, and drink it two or three days in succession. He did this yet without result. We became desperate, he suffered so. He was swollen terribly. He told me his suffering could only be described as torture. I sent and bought Theodore's Black-Draught. I made him take a big dose, and when it began to act he fainted, he was in such misery, but he got relief and began to mend at once. He got well, and we both feel he owes his life to Theodore's Black-Draught."

Theodore's Black-Draught will help you to keep fit, ready for the day's work. Try it!

The Fire Chief reported that there had been one alarm of fire during the month of July.

The City Treasurer's report showed a balance of $2,494.54.

The following building permits were granted:

Chairman Watkins, of the Internal Improvement Committee, reported that his committee had conferred with Contractor Billiter, who is building pikes in the county in regard to resurfacing Fourth and West Third streets and that there was a likelihood that he would be given the contract for this work.

Chairman Greenlee, of the Fire Committee, reported that Fire Chief Newell had reported it impossible to install a fire alarm signal on Limestone bridge and he recommended that two warning signs be erected, one at each end of the bridge. Mr. Davis offered an amendment that an electric gong be installed on the bridge and Dr. Dodson offered a substitute that the matter be referred to the Fire Committee with power to act. The substitute prevailed.

The police together with the Chief and the Sergeant were granted their annual 10 days vacation with full pay.

CAMP BROKEN MONDAY MORNING AT OLD RUGGLES

One of the Most Successful Years in the History of Ruggles Campmeeting Came to a Close Monday.

Ruggles Campgrounds, August 4.—Just a few more words need to be said about the closing of the most successful campmeeting in many ways ever held at Ruggles. The closing service was in the nature of a platform service, several speakers taking part. After an inspiring song service, and he it said to the credit of the chorister and choir, there was no slackening of the splendid work of the singers until the very last service, Miss Hurd was introduced as spokesman for the children. She told in a neat little speech of her work with the children, how many of them had taken a definite stand for Christ, and that the work was very effective. The Mothers were represented in a fine address by Mrs. O. G. Ragan. Rev. Ashley sang "Can the Lord Depend on You". Rev. W. S. Peters was presented as the spokesman for the young people which he did in his usual impressive way. The Campmeeting Association and Board of Directors were represented in a short address by J. H. Richardson.

Following this Rev. William Jones, D. D., one of the oldest of our ministers who has been attending for many years, and who expressed himself as feeling that this would be his last year, was given the platform for a talk. Dr. Jones was highly complimentary in his remarks for the splendid manner in which the campmeeting had been carried on this year. He believed the spiritual results would be lasting. The chorister, Brother Ashley then took charge for the closing moments. He had the choir and congregation form a circle from the choir platform nearly to the rear of the tabernacle, clasp hands and sing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." Then in a few well chosen words he expressed his appreciation of the hearty co-operation of the choir, the pianist and the cornetists, and especially Miss Lillian Muse who had so ably assisted him in singing so many beautiful duets. It seemed that the people never tired of hearing these two singers. Their singing was decidedly the hit of the campmeeting music. The final benediction was then pronounced by Superintendent Davenport, good byes were said and another campmeeting had passed into history.

The Board of Directors had their final meeting this morning. Business of the present campmeeting was closed up and plans for next year were considered. The Superintendents were given full power and authority to secure the very best in the way of talent that could be had. The work of Dr. Burton has been of such high character that the Board feels that the high standard set must be maintained. By unanimous vote Rev. Ashley will be asked to take charge of the choir again next year, and Miss Hurd the children's work. This action of the Board will meet with instant approval by all who know the excellent work these persons did this year. A Rules Committee was appointed to formulate a set of rules based on the constitution, have same printed on large cards to be tacked up on the trees about the camp so that no one need be ignorant of the rules obtaining during campmeeting. Joseph P. Warder was re-elected keeper of the grounds. It was decided that all talent should be arranged for by the March meeting of the Board, also that the hotel privilege be let at that time in order to give the one securing the privilege to raise his own vegetables and in other words make the necessary preparations to conduct the hotel in the best manner. It is the intention of the Board to do much improving and possibly some new building before another year. Several of the older trees that show signs of dying will be cut and sawed to secure lumber for building purposes. The Board feels that the continued success of the meetings proves that people appreciate the sort of meetings that are being given from year to year, and they wish to provide room for the many who would camp if rooms could be had. All who love the old campmeeting can rest assured that when the time rolls around again Ruggles will be ready to give them a better campmeeting than any held heretofore.

The Maysville papers were never so popular as this year. The paper boy Robert Peters had difficulty many times in supplying all who wanted to read the news. The Board appreciates the fact that much of the popularity of the campmeeting can be attributed to the publicity given by the Maysville papers. The writer wishes to express his personal appreciation of the many courtesies shown, and with this we close.

A Settle-Up-An-Estate Sale of Farm

In order to settle an estate, Manley Brothers have placed in my hands for QUICK sale, their farm of 137 acres located on a pike between Aberdeen and Manchester. 112 acres is in bottom land, fertile as the famous Nile Valley. A modern, eight room house and two good barns are on it, and all the farm is well fenced.

The price, $17,000 will sell this farm in a hurry, so don't delay.
